THE JAMMU AND KASHMIR ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION ACT, 1997

Act No. XXXV of 1997

[Received the assent of the Governor on 14th November, 1997 and published in the Government Gazette dated 19th November, 1997].

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to domestic arbitration, to define the law relating to conciliation and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Be it enacted by the Jammu and Kashmir State Legislature in the Forty-eight Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—This Act may be called the Jammu and Kashmir Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1997.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Jammu and Kashmir State.

<sup>1</sup>[(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Government may, by notification in the Government Gazette, appoint].

PART I

ARBITRATION

CHAPTER I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

2. Definitions.—(1) In this part unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) “arbitration” means any arbitration whether or not administered by permanent arbitral institution ;

(b) “arbitration agreement” means an agreement referred to in

1. Enforced by SRO 403 dated 11-12-1997 w. e. f. 1-1-1998.

section 7 ;

- (c) “arbitral award” includes an interim award ;
  - (d) “arbitral tribunal means” a sole arbitrator or a panel of arbitrators ;
  - (e) “Court” means the Principal Court of original jurisdiction in a district, and includes the High Court in exercise of its ordinary original civil jurisdiction having jurisdiction to decide the questions forming the subject matter of the arbitration if the same had been the subject matter of a suit, but does not include any civil court of a grade inferior to such Principal Civil Court or any Court of Small Causes ;
  - (f) “legal representative” means a person who in law represents the estate of a deceased person, and includes any person who intermeddles with the estate of the deceased and, where a party sets in a representative character, the person on whom the estate devolves on the death of the party so acting ;
  - (g) “party” means a party to an arbitration agreement.
- (2) This part shall not affect any other law for the time being in force by virtue of which certain disputes may not be submitted to arbitration.
  - (3) This part except sub-section (1) of section 40, sections 41 and 43 shall apply to every arbitration under any other enactment for the time being in force, as if the arbitration were pursuant to an arbitration agreement and as if that other enactment were an arbitration agreement except in so far as the provisions of this part are inconsistent with that other enactment or with any rules made thereunder.
  - (4) Subject to the provision of sub-section (2) and save in so far as it otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, this part shall apply to all arbitrations and to all proceedings relating there to
  - (5) Where this part, except section 28, leaves the parties free to determine a certain issue, that freedom shall include the right of the parties to authorise any person including an institution, to determine that issue.

(6) An arbitral award made under this part shall be considered as a domestic award.

(7) Where this part—

(a) refers to the fact that the parties have agreed or that they may agree ; or

(b) in any other way refers to an agreement of the parties ;

that agreement shall include any arbitration rules referred to in that agreement.

(8) Where this part, other than clause (a) of section 25 or clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 32 refers to claim, it shall also apply to a defence to that counterclaim.

3. Receipt of written communications.—(1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties.—

(a) any written communication is deemed to have been received if it is delivered to the addressee personally or at his place of business, habitual residence or mailing address ; and

(b) if none of the places referred to in clause (a) can be found after making a reasonable inquiry, a written communication is deemed to have been received if it is sent to the addressee's last known place of business, habitual residence or mailing address by registered letter or by any other means which provides a record of the attempt to deliver it.

(2) The communication is deemed to have been received on the day it is so delivered.

(3) This section does not apply to written communications in respect of proceedings of any judicial authority.

4. Waiver of right to object.—A party who knows that—

(a) any provision of this part which the parties may derogate ; or

(b) any requirement under the arbitration agreement, has not been complied with and yet proceeds with the arbitration without stating his objection to such non-compliance without undue delay or, if a time limit is provided for stating that objection, within that period of time, shall be deemed to have waived his right to so object.

5. Extent of judicial intervention.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, in matters governed by this part, no judicial authority shall intervene except where so provided in this part.

6. Administrative assistance.—In order to facilitate the conduct of the arbitral proceedings, the parties or the arbitral tribunal with the consent of the parties may arrange for administrative assistance by a suitable institution or person.

CHAPTER II

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

7. Arbitration agreement.—(1) In this part, “arbitration agreement” means an agreement by the parties to submit to arbitration all or certain disputes which have arisen or which may arise between them in respect of a defined legal relationship, whether contractual or not.

(2) An arbitration agreement may be in the form of an arbitration clause in a contract or in the form of a separate agreement.

(3) An arbitration agreement shall be in writing.

(4) An arbitration agreement is in writing if it is contained in—

- (a) a document signed by the parties ;
- (b) an exchange of letters, telex, telegrams or other means of telecommunication which provide a record of the agreement ;
or
- (c) an exchange of statements of claim and defence in which the existence of agreement is alleged by one party and not denied by the other.

(5) The reference in a contract to a document containing an arbitration clause constitutes an arbitration agreement if the contract is in writing and the reference is such as to make that arbitration clause part of the contract.

8. Power to refer parties to arbitration where there is an arbitration agreement.—(1) A judicial authority before which an action is brought in a matter which is the subject of an arbitration agreement shall, if a party so applies not later than when submitting his first statement on the substance of the dispute, refer the parties to arbitration.

(2) The application referred to in sub-section (1) shall not be entertained unless it is accompanied by the original arbitration agreement or a duly certified copy thereof.

(3) Notwithstanding that an application has been made under sub-section (1) and that the issue is pending before the judicial authority, an arbitration may be commenced or continued and an arbitral award made.

9. Interim measures etc. by Court.—A party may before or during arbitral proceedings or at any time after the making of the arbitral award but before it becomes decree of a Court, apply to a Court.—

- (i) for the appointment of a guardian for a minor or a person of unsound mind for the purposes of arbitral proceedings ; or
- (ii) for an interim measure of protection in respect of any of the following matters, namely :—
  - (a) the preservation, interim custody or sale of any goods which are the subject matter of the arbitration agreement ;
  - (b) securing the amount in dispute in the arbitration ;
  - (c) the detention, preservation or inspection of any property or thing which is the subject matter of the dispute and arbitration, or as to which any question may arise therein and authorising for any of the aforesaid purposes any person to enter upon any land or building in the possession of any party, or authorising any samples to be taken or any observation to be made, or experiment to be tried, which may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of obtaining full information or evidence ;
  - (d) interim injunction or the appointment of a receiver ;

- (e) such other interim measure of protection as may appear to the Court to be just and convenient, and convenient, and the Court shall have the same power for making orders as it has for the purpose of and in relation to, any proceedings before it.

CHAPTER III

COMPOSITION OF ARBITRAL TRIBUNAL

10. Number of arbitrators.—(1) The parties are free to determine the number of arbitrators, provided that such number shall not be an even number.

(2) Failing the determination referred to in sub-section (1), the arbitral tribunal shall consist of a sole arbitrator.

11. Appointment of arbitrators.—(1) A person of any nationality may be an arbitrator, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

(2) Subject to sub-section (6), the parties are free to agree on a procedure for appointing the arbitrator or arbitrators.

(3) Failing any agreement referred to in sub-section (2) in an arbitration with three arbitrators, each party shall appoint one arbitrator, and the two appointed arbitrators shall appoint the third arbitrator who shall be the presiding arbitrator.

(4) If the appointment procedure in sub-section (3) applies and—

- (a) a party fails to appoint an arbitrator within thirty days from the receipt of a request to do so from the other party ; or
- (b) the two appointed arbitrators fail to agree on the third arbitrator within thirty days from the date of their appointment, the appointment shall be made, upon request of a party, by the Chief Justice of the High Court or any person or institution designated by him.

(5) Failing any agreement referred to in sub-section (2), in an arbitration with a sole arbitrator, if the parties fail to agree on the arbitrator, within thirty days from receipt of a request by one party from the other party to so agree the appointment shall be made upon request of a party, by the Chief Justice of the High Court or any person or institution designated by him.

(6) Where, under an appointment procedure agreed upon by the parties,—

- (a) a party fails to act as required under that procedure ; or
- (b) the parties, on the two appointed arbitrators, fail to reach an agreement expected of them under that procedure ; or
- (c) a person, including an institution, fails to perform any function entrusted to him or it under that procedure, a party may request the Chief Justice of the High Court or any person or institution designated by him to take the necessary measure, unless the agreement on the appointment procedure provides other means for securing the appointment.

(7) A decision on a matter entrusted by sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) or sub-section (6) to the Chief Justice of the High Court or the person or institution designated by him is final.

(8) The Chief Justice of the High Court or the person or institution designated by him, in appointing an arbitrator, shall have the regard to—

- (a) any qualification required of the arbitrator by the agreement of the parties ; and
- (b) other consideration as are likely to secure the appointment of an independent and impartial arbitrator.

(9) The Chief Justice of the High Court may make such scheme as he may deem appropriate for dealing with matters entrusted by sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) or sub-section (6) to him.

12. Grounds of challenge.—(1) When a person is approached in connection with his possible appointment as an arbitrator, he shall disclose in writing any circumstances likely to give rise to justifiable doubts as to his independence or impartiality.

(2) An arbitrator, from the time of his appointment and throughout the arbitral proceedings, shall, without delay, disclose, to the parties in writing any circumstances referred to in sub-section (1) unless they have already been informed of them by him.

(3) An arbitrator may be challenged only if—

(a) circumstances exist that give rise to justifiable doubts as to his independence or impartiality, or

(b) he does not possess the qualifications agreed to by the parties.

(4) A party may challenge an arbitrator appointed by him, or in whose appointment he has participated, only for reasons of which he becomes aware after the appointment has been made.

13. Challenge procedure.—(1) Subject to sub-section (4), the parties are free to agree on a procedure for challenging an arbitrator.

(2) Failing any agreement referred to in sub-section (1), a party who intends to challenge, an arbitrator shall, within fifteen days after becoming aware of the constitution of the arbitral tribunal or after becoming aware of any circumstances referred to in sub-section (3) of section 12, send a written statement of the reasons for the challenge to the arbitral tribunal.

(3) Unless the arbitrator challenged under sub-section (2) withdraws from his office or the other party agrees to the challenge, the arbitral tribunal shall decide on the challenge.

(4) If a challenge under any procedure agreed upon by the parties, or under the procedure under sub-section (2) is not successful, the arbitral tribunal shall continue the arbitral, proceedings and make an arbitral award.

(5) Where an arbitral award is made under sub-section (4) the party challenging the arbitrator may make an application for setting aside such an arbitral award in accordance with section 34.

(6) where an arbitral award is set aside on an application made under sub-section (5), the Court may decide as to whether the arbitrator who is challenged is entitled to any fees.

14. Failure or impossibility to act.—(1) The mandate of an arbitrator shall terminate if—

(a) he becomes de jure or de facts unable to perform his functions or for other reasons fails to act without undue delays ; and

(b) he withdraws from his office or the parties agree to the termination of his mandate.

(2) If a controversy remains concerning any of the grounds referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1), a party may, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, apply to the Court to decide on the termination of the mandate.

(3) If, under this section or sub-section (3) of section 13, an arbitrator withdraws from his office or a party agrees to the termination of the mandate of an arbitrator, it shall not imply acceptance of the validity of any ground, referred to in this section or sub-section (3) of section 12.

15. Termination of mandate and substitution of arbitrator.—(1) In addition to the circumstances referred to in section 13 or section 14, the mandate of an arbitrator shall terminate,—

(a) where he withdraws from office for any reason, or

(b) by or pursuant to agreement of the parties.

(2) Where the mandate of an arbitrator terminates, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed according to the rules that were applicable to the appointment of the arbitrator being replaced.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, where an arbitrator is replaced under sub-section (2), any hearings previously held may be repeated at the discretion of the arbitral tribunal.

(4) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, an order or ruling of the arbitral tribunal made prior to the replacement of an arbitrator under this section shall not be invalid solely because there has been a change in the composition of the arbitral tribunal.

CHAPTER IV

JURISDICTION OF ARBITRAL TRIBUNALS

16. Competence of arbitral tribunal to rule on its jurisdiction.—

(1) The arbitral tribunal may rule on its own jurisdiction, including ruling on any objections with respect to the existence or validity of the arbitration agreement, and for that purpose,—

(a) an arbitration clause which forms part of a contract shall be treated as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract ; and

(b) a decision by the arbitral tribunal that the contract is null and void shall not entail ipso jure the invalidity of the arbitration clause.

(2) A plea that the arbitral tribunal does not have jurisdiction shall be raised not later than the submission of the statement of defence, however, a party shall not be precluded from raising such a plea merely because that he has appointed, or participated in the appointment of, an arbitrator.

(3) A plea that arbitral tribunal is exceeding the scope of authority shall be raised as soon as the matter alleged to be beyond the scope of its authority is raised during the arbitral proceed.

(4) The arbitral tribunal may, in either of the cases referred to in sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), admit a later plea if it considers the delay justified.

(5) The arbitral tribunal shall decide on a plea referred to in sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) and, where the arbitral tribunal takes a decision rejecting the plea, continue with the arbitral proceedings and make an arbitral award.

(6) A party aggrieved by such an arbitral award may make an application for setting aside such an arbitral award in accordance with section 34.

17. Interim measures ordered by arbitral tribunal.—(1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the arbitral tribunal may, at the request of a party, order a party to take any interim measure of protection as the arbitral tribunal may consider necessary in respect of the subject matter of the dispute.

(2) The arbitral tribunal may require a party to provide appropriate security in connection with a measure ordered under sub-section (1).

CHAPTER V

CONDUCT OF ARBITRAL PROCEEDINGS

18. Equal treatment of parties.—The parties shall be treated with equality and each party shall be given a full opportunity to present his case.

19. Determination of rules of procedure.—(1) The arbitral tribunal shall, not be bound by the Code of Civil Procedure, Samvat 1977 or the Evidence Act, Samvat 1977.

(2) Subject to this part, the parties are free to agree on the procedure to be followed by the arbitral tribunal in conducting its proceedings.

(3) Failing any agreement referred to in sub-section (2), the arbitral tribunal may, subject to this part conduct the proceedings in the manner it considers appropriate.

(4) The power of the arbitral tribunal under sub-section (3) includes the power to determine the admissibility, relevance, materiality and weight of any evidence.

20. Place of arbitration.—(1) The parties are free to agree on the place of arbitration.

(2) Failing any agreement referred to in sub-section (1), the place of arbitration shall be determined by the arbitral tribunal having regard to the circumstances of the case, including the convenience of the parties.

(3) Notwithstanding sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the arbitral tribunal may, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, meet at any place it considers appropriate for consultation among its members, for hearing witnesses, experts or parties, or for inspection of documents, goods or other property.

<sup>1</sup>[21. Commencement of arbitral proceedings.—Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the arbitral proceeding in respect of a particular dispute commence on the date on which a request for that dispute to be referred to arbitration is received by the respondent.]

22. Language.—(1) The parties are free to agree upon the language or languages to be used in the arbitral proceedings.

(2) Failing any agreement referred to in sub-section (1) the arbitral tribunal shall determine the language or languages to be used in the arbitral proceedings.

(3) The agreement or determination, unless otherwise specified, shall apply to any written statement by a party, any hearing and any arbitral award, decision or other communication by the arbitral tribunal.

(4) The arbitral tribunal may order that any documentary evidence shall be accompanied by a translation into the language or languages agreed upon by parties or determined by the arbitral tribunal.

23. Statement of claim and defence.—(1) Within the period of the time

1. Substituted by Act No. XII of 2004 s. 21.

agreed upon by the parties, or determined by the arbitral tribunal, the claimant shall state the facts supporting his claim, the points of issue and the relief or remedy sought, and the respondent shall state his defence in respect of these particulars unless the parties have otherwise agreed as to the required elements of those statements.

(2) The parties may submit with their statement all documents they consider to be relevant or may add a reference to the documents or other evidence they will submit.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, either party may amend or supplement his claim or defence during the course of the arbitral proceedings, unless the arbitral tribunal considers it inappropriate to allow the amendment or supplement having regard to the delay in making it.

24. Hearing and written proceedings.—(1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the arbitral tribunal shall decide whether to hold oral hearings for the presentation of evidence or for oral argument, or whether the proceedings shall be conducted on the basis of documents and other materials :

Provided that the arbitral tribunal shall hold oral hearings at any appropriate stage of the proceedings, on a request by a party, unless the parties have agreed that no oral hearing shall be held.

(2) The parties shall be given sufficient advance notice of any hearing and of any meeting of the arbitral tribunal for the purpose of inspection of documents, goods or other property.

(3) All statements, documents or other information supplied to or applications made to arbitral tribunal by one party shall be communicated to the other party, and any expert report or evidentiary document on which the arbitral tribunal may rely in making its decision shall be communicated to the parties.

25. Default of a party.—Unless, otherwise agreed by the parties, where, without showing sufficient cause,—

(a) the claimant fails to communicate his statement of claim in accordance with sub-section (1), section 23 of the arbitral tribunal shall terminate the proceeding ;

(b) the respondent fails to communicate his statement of defence in accordance with sub-section (1) of section 23, the arbitral tribunal shall continue the proceedings without treating that failure in itself as an admission of allegations by the claimant ;

- (c) a party fails to appear at an oral hearing or to produce documentary evidence, the arbitral tribunal may continue the proceedings and make the arbitral award on the evidence before it.

26. Expert appointed by arbitral tribunal.—(1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the arbitral tribunal may—

- (a) appoint one or more experts to report to it on specific issues to be determined by the arbitral tribunal ; and
- (b) require a party to give the expert any relevant information or to produce, or to provide access to, any relevant documents, goods or other property for inspection.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, if a party so requests or if the arbitral tribunal considers it necessary, the expert shall, after delivery of his written or oral report, participate in an oral hearing where the parties have the opportunity to put questions to him and to present expert witnesses in order to testify on the points at issue.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the expert shall, on the request of a party, make available to that party for examination all documents, goods or property in the possession of the expert with which he was provided in order to prepare his report.

27. Court assistance in taking evidence.—(1) The arbitral tribunal or a party with the approval of the arbitral tribunal may apply to the Court for assistance in taking evidence.

(2) The application shall specify—

- (a) the names and addresses of the parties and the arbitrators ;
- (b) the general nature of the claim and the relief sought ;
- (c) the evidence to be obtained, in particular,—

406 ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION ACT, 1997

- (i) the name and address of any person to be heard as witness or expert witness and a statement of the subject-matter of the testimony required ;
- (ii) the description of any document to be produced or property to be inspected.

(3) The Court may, within its competence and according to its rules on taking evidence, execute the request by ordering that the evidence be provided directly to the arbitral tribunal.

(4) The Court may, while making an order under sub-section (3) issue the same processes to witnesses as it may issue in suits tried before it.

(5) Persons failing to attend in accordance with such process, or making any other default, or refusing to give their evidence, or guilty of any contempt to the arbitral tribunal during the conduct of arbitral proceedings, shall be subject to the like disadvantages, penalties and punishments by order of the Court on the representation of the arbitral tribunal as they would incur for the like offences in suits tried before the Court.

(6) In this section the expression “Processes” includes summons, and commissions for the examination of witnesses and summons to produce documents.

CHAPTER VI

MAKING OF ARBITRAL AWARD AND TERMINATION OF PROCEEDINGS

28. Rules applicable to substance of dispute.—(1) The arbitral tribunal shall decide the dispute submitted to arbitration in accordance with the substantive law for the time being in force in the State.

(2) The arbitral tribunal shall decide ex-aequo-et bono or as amiable compositeur or only if the parties have expressly authorised it to do so.

(3) In all cases, the arbitral tribunal shall decide in accordance with the terms of the contract and shall take into account the usage of the trade applicable to the transaction.

29. Decision making by panel of arbitrators.—(1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, in arbitral proceedings with more than one arbitrator, any decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be made by a majority of all its members.

(2) Notwithstanding sub-section (1), if authorised by the parties or all the members of the arbitral tribunal, questions of procedure may be decided by the presiding arbitrator.

30. Settlement.—(1) It is not incompatible with an arbitration agreement for an arbitral tribunal to encourage settlement of the dispute and with the agreement of the parties, the arbitral tribunal may use mediation, conciliation or other procedures at any time during the arbitral proceedings to encourage settlement.

(2) If, during arbitral proceedings, the parties settle the dispute, the arbitral tribunal shall terminate the proceedings and, if requested by the parties and not objected to by the arbitral tribunal, record the settlement in the form of an arbitral award on agreed terms.

(3) An arbitral award on agreed terms shall be made in accordance with section 31 and shall state that it is an arbitral award.

(4) An arbitral award on agreed terms shall have the same status and effect as any other arbitral award on the substance of the dispute.

31. Form and contents of arbitral award.—(1) An arbitral award shall be made in writing and shall be signed by the members of the arbitral tribunal.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1), in arbitral proceedings with more than one arbitrator, the signatures of the majority of all the members of the arbitral tribunal shall be sufficient so long as the reason for any omitted signature is stated.

(3) The arbitral award shall state the reasons upon which is based unless—

- (a) the parties have agreed that no reasons are to be given, or
- (b) the award is an arbitral award on agreed terms under section 30.

(4) The arbitral award shall state its date and the place of arbitration as determined in accordance with section 20 and the award shall be deemed to have been made at that place.

(5) After the arbitral award is made, a signed copy shall be delivered to each party.

(6) The arbitral tribunal may, at any time during the arbitral proceedings, make an interim arbitral award on any matter with respect to which it may make a final arbitral award.

(7) (a) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, where and in so far as an arbitral award is for the payment of money, the arbitral tribunal may include in the sum for which the award is made interest, <sup>1</sup>[at such rate, not exceeding 6% as it may deem reasonable] on the whole or any part of the money, for the whole or any part of the period between the date on which the cause of action arose and the date on which the award is made.

(b) A sum directed to be paid by an arbitral award shall unless the award otherwise directs, carry interest at the rate of <sup>2</sup>[six per centum] per annum from the date of the award to the date of payment.

(8) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties,—

(a) the costs of an arbitration shall be fixed by the arbitral tribunal ;

(b) the arbitral tribunal shall specify—

(i) the party entitled to cost,

(ii) the party who shall pay the costs,

(iii) the amount of costs or method of determining that amount, and

(iv) the manner in which the costs shall be paid.

Explanation.—For the purpose of clause (a) “costs” means reasonable costs relating to—

(i) the fee and expenses of the arbitrators and witnesses ;

(ii) legal fees and expenses ;

(iii) any administration fees of the institution supervising the arbitration ; and

(iv) any other expenses incurred in connection with arbitral proceedings and the arbitral award.

1. Substituted for “at such rate as it deems reasonable” by Act No. VI of 2010 s. 2.

2. Substituted for “eighteen per centum” ibid.

32. Termination of proceedings.—(1) The arbitral proceeding shall be terminated by the final arbitral award or by an order of the arbitral tribunal under sub-section (2).

(2) The arbitral tribunal shall issue an order for the termination of the arbitral proceeding where—

- (a) the claimant withdraws his claim, unless the respondent objects to the order and the arbitral tribunal recognises a legitimate interest on his part in obtaining a final settlement of the dispute.
- (b) the parties agree on the termination of the proceedings or,
- (c) the arbitral tribunal finds that the continuation of the proceedings has for any other reason become unnecessary or impossible.

(3) Subject to section 33 and sub-section (4) of section 34, the mandate of the arbitral tribunal shall terminate with the termination of the arbitral proceedings.

33. Correction and interpretation of award, additional award.—(1) Within thirty days from the receipt of the arbitral award, unless another period of time has been agreed upon by the parties,—

- (a) a party, with notice to the other party, may request the arbitral tribunal to correct any computation errors, any clerical or typographical errors or any other errors of similar nature occurring in the award ;
- (b) if so agreed by the parties, a party, with notice to the other party, may request the arbitral tribunal to give an interpretation of a specific point or part of the award.

(2) If the arbitral tribunal considers the request made under sub-section (1) to be justified, it shall make the correction or give the interpretation within thirty days from the receipt of the request and the interpretation shall form part of the arbitral award.

(3) The arbitral tribunal may correct any errors of the type referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1), on its own initiative, with thirty days from the date of the arbitral award.

(4) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, a party with notice to the other party, may request, within thirty days from the receipt of the arbitral award, the arbitral tribunal to make an additional arbitral award as to claims presented in the arbitral proceedings but omitted from the arbitral award.

(5) If the arbitral tribunal considers the request made under sub-section (4) to be justified, it shall make the additional arbitral award within sixty days from the receipt of such request.

(6) The arbitral tribunal may extend, if necessary, the period of time within which it shall make a correction, give an interpretation or make an additional arbitral award under sub-section (2) or sub-section (5).

(7) Section 31 shall apply to a correction or interpretation of the arbitral award or to an additional arbitral award made under this section.

CHAPTER VII

RECOURSE AGAINST ARBITRAL AWARD

34. Application for setting aside arbitral award.—(1) Recourse to a Court against an arbitral award may be made only by an application for setting aside such award in accordance with sub-section (2) and sub-section (3).

(2) An arbitral award may be set aside by the Court only—

(a) the party making the application furnishes proof that—

(i) a party was under some incapacity ; or

(ii) the arbitration agreement is not valid under the law to which the parties have subjected it or, failing any indication thereon under the law for the time being in force ; or

(iii) the party making the application was not given proper notice of the appointment of an arbitrator or of the arbitral proceeding or was otherwise unable to present his case ; or

(iv) the arbitral award deals with a dispute not contemplated by or not falling within the terms of the submission to arbitration or it contains decisions on matters beyond the scope of the submission to arbitration :

Provided that if the decision on matters submitted to arbitration can be separated from those not so submitted, only that part of the arbitral award which contains decisions on matters not submitted to arbitration may be set aside ; or

- (v) the composition of the arbitral tribunal or the arbitral procedure was not in accordance with the agreement of the parties, unless such agreement was in conflict with a provision of this part from which the parties cannot derogate, or, failing such agreement was not in accordance with this Part ; or

(b) the Court finds that—

- (i) the subject-matter of the dispute is not capable of settlement by arbitration under the law for the time being in force ;
or
- (ii) the arbitral award is in conflict with the public policy of the State.

Explanation.—Without prejudice to the generality of sub-clause (ii) of clause (b), it is hereby declared for the avoidance of any doubt, that an award is in conflict with the public policy of the State if the making of the award was induced or affected by fraud or corruption or was in violation of section 58 or section 64.

(3) An application for setting aside may not be made after three months have elapsed from the date on which the party making that application had received the arbitral award or, if a request had been made under section 33, from the date on which that request had been disposed of by the arbitral tribunal :

Provided that if the Court is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from making the application within the said period of three months it may entertain the application within a further period of thirty days, but not thereafter.

(4) on receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the Court may, where it is appropriate and it is so requested by a party, adjourn the proceedings for a period of time determined by it in order to give the arbitral tribunal an opportunity to resume the arbitral proceedings or to take such other action as in the opinion of arbitral tribunal will eliminate the grounds for setting aside the arbitral award.

CHAPTER VIII

FINALITY AND ENFORCEMENT OF ARBITRAL AWARDS

35. Finality of arbitral awards.—Subject to this Part an arbitral award shall be final and binding on the parties and persons claiming under them respectively.

36. Enforcement.—Where the time for making an application to set aside the arbitral award under section 34 has expired, as such application having been made, it has been refused, the award shall be enforced under the Code of Civil Procedure, Samvat 1977 in the same manner as if it were a decree of the Court.

CHAPTER IX

APPEALS

37. Appealable orders.—(1) An appeal shall lie from the following orders (and from no others) to the Court authorised by law to hear appeals from original decrees of the Court passing the order namely :—

- (a) granting or refusing to grant any measure under section 9 ;
- (b) setting aside or refusing to set aside an arbitral award under section 34.

(2) An appeal shall also lie from an order granting or refusing to grant an interim measure under section 17 to a Court.

(3) No second appeal shall lie from an order passed in appeal under this section, but nothing in this section shall affect or take away any right to appeal to the Supreme Court.

MISCELLANEOUS

38. Deposits.—(1) The arbitral tribunal may fix the amount of the deposit or supplementary deposit, as the case may be, as an advance for the costs referred to in sub-section (8) of section 31, which it expects will be incurred in respect of the claim submitted to it :

Provided that where, apart from the claim, a counter-claim has been submitted to the arbitral tribunal, it may fix separate amount of deposit for the claim and counter claim.

(2) The deposit referred to in sub-section (1) shall be payable in equal shares by the parties :

Provided that where one party fails to pay his share of the deposit, the other party may pay that share :

Provided further that where the other party also does not pay the aforesaid share in respect of the claim or the counter-claim, the arbitral tribunal may suspend or terminate the arbitral proceedings in respect of such claim or counter-claim, as the case may be.

(3) Upon termination of the arbitral proceedings, the arbitral tribunal shall render an accounting to the parties of the deposits received and shall return any unexpended balance to the party or parties, as the case may be.

39. Lien on arbitral award and deposits as to costs.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) and to any provision to the contrary in the arbitration agreement, the arbitral tribunal shall have a lien on the arbitral award for any unpaid costs of the arbitration.

(2) If in any case an arbitral tribunal refuses to deliver its award except on payment of the costs demanded by it, the Court may, on an application in this behalf, order that the arbitral tribunal shall deliver the arbitral award to the applicant on payment into Court by the applicant of the costs demanded, and shall, after such inquiry, if any, as it thinks fit, further order that out of the money so paid into Court there shall be paid to the arbitral tribunal by way of costs such sum as the Court may consider reasonable and that the balance of the money, if any, shall be refunded to the applicant.

(3) An application under sub-section (2) may be made by any party unless the fees demanded have been fixed by written agreement between him and the arbitral tribunal, and the arbitral tribunal shall be entitled to appear and be heard on any such application.

(4) The Court may make such orders as it thinks fit respecting the costs of the arbitration where any question arises respecting such costs and the arbitral award contains no sufficient provision concerning them.

40. Arbitration agreement not to be discharged by death of party thereto.—(1) An arbitration agreement shall not be discharged by the death of any party thereto either as respects the deceased or as respects any other party, but shall in such event be enforceable by or against the legal representative of the deceased.

(2) The mandate of an arbitrator shall not be terminated by the death of any party by whom he was appointed.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the operation of any law by virtue of which any right of action is extinguished by the death of a person.

41. Provision in case of insolvency.—(1) Where it is provided by a term in a contract to which an insolvent is a party that any dispute arising thereout or in connection therewith shall be submitted to arbitration, the said term shall, if the receiver adopts the contract, be enforceable by or against him so far as it relates to any such dispute.

(2) Where a person who has been adjudged an insolvent had, before the commencement of the insolvency proceedings, become a party to an arbitration agreement, and any matter to which the agreement applies is required to be determined in connection with, or for the purposes of the insolvency proceedings, then if the case is one to which sub-section (1) does not apply any other party or the receiver may apply to the judicial authority, having jurisdiction. In the insolvency, proceeding for an order directing that the matter in question shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the arbitration agreement, and the judicial authority may, if it is of opinion that having regard to all the circumstances of the case, the matter ought to be determined by arbitration, make an order accordingly.

(3) In this section the expression “receiver” includes an Official Assignee.

42. Jurisdiction.—Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this part or in any other law for the time being in force, where with respect to an arbitration agreement any application under this part has been made in a Court, that Court alone shall have Jurisdiction over the arbitral proceedings and all subsequent applications arising out of that agreement and the arbitral proceedings shall be made in that Court and in no other Court.

43. Limitations.—(1) The Limitation Act, Samvat 1995 shall apply to arbitrations as it applies to proceedings in Court.

(2) For the purposes of this section and the Limitation Act, Svt. 1995 an arbitration shall be deemed to have commenced on the date referred in section 21.

(3) Where an arbitration agreement to submit future disputes to arbitration provides that any claim to which the agreement applies shall be barred unless some step to commence arbitral proceedings is taken within a time fixed by the agreement, and a dispute arises to which the agreement applies, the Court, if it is of opinion that in the circumstances of the case undue hardship would otherwise be caused, and notwithstanding that the time so fixed has expired, may on such terms, if any, as the justice of the case may require, extend the time for such period as it thinks proper.

(4) Where the Court orders that an arbitral award be set aside, the period between the commencement of the arbitration and the date of the order of the Court shall be excluded in computing the time prescribed by the Limitation Act, Samvat 1995 for the commencement of the proceedings (including arbitration) with respect to the dispute so submitted.

PART II

CONCILIATION

44. Application and scope.—(1) Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force and unless the parties have otherwise agreed, this part shall apply to conciliation of disputes arising out of legal relationship, whether contractual or not and to all proceedings relating thereto.

(2) This part shall not apply where by virtue of any law for the time being in force certain disputes may not be submitted to conciliation.

45. Commencement of conciliation proceedings.—(1) The party initiating conciliation shall send to the other party a written invitation to conciliate under this Part, briefly identifying the subject of the dispute.

(2) Conciliation proceeding shall commence when the other party accepts in writing the invitation to conciliate.

(3) If the other party rejects the invitation, there will be no conciliation proceedings.

(4) If the party initiating conciliation does not receive a reply within thirty days from the date on which he sends the invitation, or within such other period of time as specified in the invitation, he may elect to treat this as a rejection of the invitation to conciliate and if he so elects, he shall inform in writing the other party accordingly.

46. Number of conciliators.—(1) There shall be one conciliator unless the parties agree that there shall be two or three conciliators.

(2) Where there is more than one conciliator, they ought, as a general rule, to act jointly.

47. Appointment of conciliators.—(1) Subject to sub-section (2),—

- (a) in conciliation proceeding with one conciliator, the parties may agree on the name of a sole conciliator ;
- (b) in conciliation proceedings with two conciliators, each party may appoint one conciliator ;
- (c) in conciliation proceedings with three conciliators, each party may appoint one conciliator and the parties may agree on the name of the third conciliator who shall act as the presiding conciliator.

(2) Parties may enlist the assistances of a suitable institution or person in connection with the appointment of conciliators, and in particular :—

- (a) a party may request such an institution or persons to recommend the names of suitable individuals to act as conciliators ; or
- (b) the parties may agree that the appointment of one or more conciliators be made directly by such an institution or person :

Provided that in recommending of appointing individuals to act as conciliator, the institution or person shall have regard to such consideration as are likely to secure the appointment of an independent and impartial conciliator.

48. Submission of statements to conciliator.—(1) The conciliator, upon his appointment, may request each party to submit to him a brief written statement describing the general nature of the dispute and the points at issue. Each party shall send a copy of such statement to the other party.

(2) The conciliator may request each party to submit to him a further written statement of his position and the facts and grounds in support thereof, supplemented by any documents and other evidence that such party deems appropriate. The Party shall send a copy of such statement, documents and other evidence to the other party

(3) At any stage of the conciliation proceedings, the conciliator may request a party to submit to him such additional information as he deems appropriate.

Explanation.—In this section and all the following sections of this Part, the term “conciliator” applies to a sole conciliator, two or three conciliators, as the case may be.

49. Conciliator not bound by certain enactments.—The conciliator is not bound by the Code of Civil Procedure, Samvat 1977 or the Evidence Act, Samvat 1977.

50. Role of conciliator.—(1) The conciliator shall assist the parties in an independent and impartial manner in their attempt to reach an amicable settlement of their dispute.

(2) The conciliator shall be guided by principles of objectivity, fairness and justice, giving consideration to, among other things, the rights and obligations of the parties, the usagers the of trade concerned and the circumstances surrounding the dispute, including any previous business practices between the parties.

(3) The conciliator may conduct the conciliation proceeding in such a manner as he considers appropriate, taking into account the circumstances of the case, the wishes the parties may express, including any request by a party that the conciliator hear oral statements, and the need for a speedy settlement of the dispute.

(4) The conciliator may, at any stage of the conciliation proceedings, make proposals for a settlement of the dispute. Such proposals need not be in writing and need not be accompanied by a statement of the reasons therefor.

51. Administrative assistance.—In order to facilitate the conduct of conciliation proceedings the parties, or the conciliator with the consent of the parties, may arrange for administrative assistance by a suitable institution or person.

52. Communication between conciliator and parties.—(1) The conciliator may invite the parties to meet him or may communicate with them orally or in writing. He may meet or communicate with the parties together or with each of them separately.

(2) Unless the parties have agreed upon the place where meetings with the conciliator are to be held, such place shall be determined by the conciliator, after consultation with the parties, having regard to the circumstances of the conciliation proceedings.

53. Disclosure of information.—When the conciliator receives factual information concerning the dispute from a party, he shall disclose the substance of that information to the other party in order that the other party may have the opportunity to present any explanation which he considers appropriate :

Provided that when a party gives any information to the conciliator subject to a specific condition that it be kept confidential, the conciliator shall not disclose that information to the other party.

54. Co-operation of parties with conciliator.—The parties shall in good faith co-operate with the conciliator, and in particular, shall endeavour to comply with requests by the conciliator to submit written materials, provide evidence and attend meetings.

55. Suggestions by parties for settlement of dispute.—Each party may, on his own initiative or at the invitation of the conciliator, submit to the conciliator suggestions for the settlement of the dispute.

56. Settlement agreement.—(1) When it appears to the conciliator that there exist elements of a settlement which may be acceptable to the parties, he shall formulate the terms of a possible settlement and submit them to the parties for their observations. After receiving the observations of the parties, the conciliator may reformulate the terms of a possible settlement in the light of such observations.

(2) If the parties reach agreement on a settlement of the dispute, they may draw up and sign a written settlement agreement. If requested by the parties, the conciliator may draw up, or assist the parties in drawing up the settlement agreement.

(3) When the parties sign the settlement agreement, it shall be final and binding on the parties and persons claiming under them respectively.

(4) The conciliator shall authenticate the settlement agreement and furnish a copy thereof to each of the parties.

57. Status and effect of settlement agreement.—The settlement agreement shall have the same status and effect as if it is an arbitral award on agreed terms on the substance of the dispute rendered by an arbitral tribunal under section 30.

58. Confidentiality.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the conciliator and the parties shall keep confidential all matters relating to the conciliation proceedings. Confidentiality shall extend also to the settlement agreement, except where its disclosure is necessary for purposes of implementation and enforcement.

59. Termination of conciliation proceedings.—The conciliation proceedings shall be terminated :

(a) by the signing of the settlement agreement by the parties, on the date of the agreement, or

(b) by a written declaration of the conciliator, after consultation with the parties, to the effect that further efforts at conciliation are no longer justified, on the date of the declaration ; or

(c) by a written declaration of the parties addressed to the conciliator to the effect that the conciliation proceedings are terminated on the date of declaration ; or

(d) by a written declaration of a party to the other party and the conciliator, if appointed to the effect that the conciliation proceedings are terminated, on the date of the declaration.

60. Resort to arbitral or judicial proceedings.—The parties shall not initiate, during the conciliation proceedings, any arbitral or judicial proceedings in respect of a dispute that is the subject matter of the conciliation proceedings except that a party may initiate arbitral or judicial proceedings where, in his opinion, such proceedings are necessary for preserving his rights.

61. Costs.—(1) Upon termination of the conciliation proceedings, the conciliator shall fix the costs of the conciliation and give written notice thereof to the parties.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1) “costs” mean reasonable costs relating to—

- (a) the fee and expenses of the conciliator and witnesses requested by the conciliator with the consent of the parties ;
- (b) any expert advice requested by the conciliator with the consent of the parties ;
- (c) any assistance provided pursuant to clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 47 and section 51 ;
- (d) any other expenses incurred in connection with the settlement agreement.

(3) The costs shall be borne equally by the parties unless the settlement agreement provides for a different apportionment. All other expenses incurred by a party shall be borne by that party.

62. Deposits.—(1) The conciliator may direct each party to deposit an equal amount as an advance for the costs referred to in sub-section (2) of section 61 which he expects will be incurred.

(2) During the course of the conciliation proceedings, the conciliator may direct supplementary deposits in an equal amount from each party.

(3) If the required deposits under sub-section (1) and (2) are not paid in full by both parties within thirty days, the conciliator may suspend the proceedings or may make written declaration of termination of the proceedings to the parties, effective on the date of that declaration.

(4) Upon termination of the conciliation proceedings ; the conciliator shall render an accounting to the parties of the deposits received and shall return any unexpended balance to the parties.

63. Role of conciliator in other proceedings.—Unless otherwise agreed by parties,—

- (a) the conciliator shall not act as an arbitrator or as a representative or counsel of a party in any arbitral or judicial proceeding in respect of a dispute that is the subject of the conciliation proceedings ;

- (b) the conciliator shall not be presented by the parties as a witness in any arbitral or judicial proceedings.

64. Admissibility of evidence in other proceedings.—The parties shall not rely on or introduce as evidence in arbitral or judicial proceedings, whether or not such proceedings relate to the dispute that is the subject of the conciliation proceedings,—

- (a) views expressed or suggestions made by the other party in respect of a possible settlement of the dispute ;
- (b) admissions made by the other party in the course of the conciliation proceedings ;
- (c) proposals made by the conciliator ;
- (d) the fact that the other party had indicated this willingness to accept a proposal for settlement made by the conciliator.

PART III

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

65. Power of High Court to make rule.—The High Court may make rule consistent with this Act, as to all proceedings before the Court under this Act.

66. Removal of difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may by order published in the Government Gazette make such provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty :

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before each House of the State Legislature.

67. Power to make rules.—(1) The Government may, by notification in the Government Gazette, make rules for carrying out provisions of this Act.

(2) Every rule made by the Government under the Act shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made before each House of the State Legislature while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session, or in two or more successive sessions and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

68. Repeal and savings.—(1) The Arbitration Act, Samvat 2002 is repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal,—

- (a) the provisions of the said enactment shall apply in relation to arbitral proceedings which commenced before this Act came into force unless otherwise agreed by the parties but Act shall apply in relation to arbitral proceedings which commenced on or after this Act comes into force ;
  - (b) all rules made and notification published under the said enactment shall, to the extent to which they are not repugnant to this Act, be deemed respectively to have been made or issued under this Act.
